Merry Christmas Church,

As we wait expectantly for Christ to be born not only to the world, but also in our hearts anew. We have this anticipation of what Christ will bring to us this year. This anticipation is akin to the presence of a gift under the tree with your name on it. The right size and shape, just the right dimensions for the gift that you secretly are longing for. No voice is given to this desired gift.

As Christmas arrives, and the gift is opened, our elation exceeds our anticipation or expectation. Christ is the perfect gift. He is the right dimensions for the secret desire and longing of the perfect gift for our hearts. We do not have to give voice to this desire, it is part of the “Imago Dei”, the created image of God in which we are all participants.

You are salt. You are light. Your presence in this world makes it a better place. You are part of what it means to have Christ born in your heart. You have received this amazing gift. I pray that you will share the gift you have received this Christmas with all you encounter.

Grace and Peace

Pastor Bun
